

I am outraged by the attempt by the banking association to void Indiana's telephone privacy law. I am a member of this do not call list for a reason. I do not want anyone calling me including banks, business, ect. My telephone is for my use not to have my privacy invaded by telemarketers and business. Please dismiss this case and protect my rights to privacy.